

Bodies

An Interdisciplinary Conference

February 25-27, 2010
12th Annual Comparative Literature Conference University of South Carolina Columbia, SC

aging bodies
the ghostly body
the anorexic body
the medical body
bodies and biotechnology the self-destructive body the religious body
the Oriental body
racialized bodies
emotional bodies
animal bodies
cross-dressed bodies
transgendered bodies
invisible bodies
viewed bodies philosophies of corporeality corpses
the “undead” body
robots & cyborgs
the disabled body
the thinking body
the body in the arts
the body as metaphor
bodies of knowledge
loving bodies
corporeality and writing body modification
border-crossing bodies
speaking bodies
bodies and the grotesque bodies “East” and “West”

Image: “Man” by Caterina Provost-Smith

Sponsored by Languages, Literatures, and Cultures, Asian Studies, the Confucius Institute at USC, and Women’s and Gender Studies

Plenary Speakers
Dorothy Ko, Barnard College Shigehisa Kuriyama, Harvard University Peter McIsaac, York University

Please send 300-word proposals and short bios to jieguo@sc.edu and yivory@sc.edu by November 15, 2009.