College Core and Distribution Requirements (some explanations)

COLLEGE CORE

Foreign Languages Demonstration of proficiency in one foreign language equivalent to the minimal passing grade on the exit examination in the 122 course. Students can demonstrate this proficiency by successfully completing Phase II of the Proficiency Test or by successfully completing the 122 course, including the exit exam administered as part of that course.

Mathematics/Analytical Reasoning OPTION 1: MATH 122 or 141, plus an additional course from: MATH (at a higher level), PHIL 110, 111, STAT, CSCE; or

OPTION 2: two courses from one of the following fields: PHIL 110, 111, STAT, CSCE

DISTRIBUTION REQUIREMENTS

A. Humanities (Excludes Independent Study 399 and Internships) Must include areas specified below. Major prerequisites may be used for no more than three hours of the Humanities requirement.

1. Fine Arts 3 HRS A course or courses dealing with the study and/or practice of the visual and performing arts. Students may take courses in art studio, art design, art history and appreciation, film, media arts, music history and appreciation, music theory and performance, theatre history and appreciation, acting, stagecraft, theatre design, and dance to fulfill this requirement. Courses in speech (SPCH) apply to the humanities requirement, but do NOT satisfy the fine arts requirement. Theatre production laboratories (THEA 219, 220, 221), one-hour credits for participation in music organizations (band, chorus, orchestra), and MART 302 do NOT apply to the fine arts requirement or to the humanities requirement.

2. Literature 3 HRS A literature course number 200 or higher. Students and their advisors should note that his requirement includes the sophomore literature courses in the Department of English (ENGL 270-289), but is not limited to these courses. ## CULTURAL AWARENESS REQUIREMENTS

Students must complete the specified number of courses in each area listed below and may use these courses to satisfy other degree requirements (i.e., general education requirements, major, minor, or cognate), except where specifically restricted. Students and their advisors should plan the Cultural Awareness courses carefully. When students come to the Office of Undergraduate Academic Affairs for senior check and graduation check, they will be asked to present advisor's approval of their Cultural Awareness Courses. Major department advisors have final approval on courses selected to meet the Cultural Awareness Requirements for their advisees.

Students must complete a minimum of three different courses for a total of 9 hours, with at least one course from each of the following:

- A. A course in the culture of the foreign language studied
- B. A course in North American Studies (Excluding HIST 110,111,112, 201,202)
- C. A course in a culture other than American OR Western European
