

2009-2010 Conferences where you may meet and talk with Dr. Wagner

2009:

5-8 November, Mobile, AL. Southeastern Archaeological Conference.
Paper: Colonial Period Native American Plant Remains from South Carolina

2010:

18-21 March, University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC. 'From Field to Table: Historical Ecology of Regional Subsistence Strategies' post-doc conference.

Paper: Creating a Mississippian Landscape in Central South Carolina.

14-18 April, St. Louis, MO. Society for American Archaeology.

Paper: Native American Plant Remains from Colonial South Carolina in the symposium "Are We What We Eat? Continuity and Change in Food during Culture Contact in North America".

5-8 May, Victoria, British Columbia. Society of Ethnobiology

Panel participant: Science, Life, and Politics: Tools for Legitimizing Stories
Running workshop for the Open Science Network, Friday lunch.

9-14 May, Tofino, British Columbia. International Congress of Ethnobiology

Paper: Do College Kids Know Plants? Presentation between 1:30-3:00 on May 12.

6-10 June, Xalapa, Mexico. Society for Economic Botany

Paper: The Domestication and Use of Sumpweed (Iva annua) in Eastern North America