

KATHERINE GOLDBERG
3101 PRENTICE AVENUE, COLUMBIA, SC 29205
(603) 689-3070 • KELLY.GOLDBERG@GMAIL.COM

EDUCATION

- Ph.D Anthropology current, University of South Carolina
- B.A. Anthropology, May 2009, Hofstra University, cum laude

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Teaching Assistant, University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC 2011-current Lead laboratory sections of Introduction to Biological Anthropology
Grade student assignments
Serve as Ambassador between students and professor
- Office/ Lab Assistant, Spica Technologies, Hollis, NH 2009-2011
Conduct office managerial duties, including purchasing, invoicing, customer relations
Execute laser damage tests and generate data reports
- Assistant Lab Director, Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY 2008-2009
Organized and maintained Center for Public Archaeology artifact collection and electronic database
Taught and oversaw students' work cleaning and cataloguing collection
Conducted research, analyzed data, and prepared findings reports
Assisted in Community Engagement endeavors
- Assistant Field Supervisor, Joseph Lloyd Manor, Lloyd Neck, NY summer 2008
Participated in Phase II and III excavations and data recovery
Performed site mapping and profile drawings
Conducted site tours for public
Attended in summer of 2007 as student
- Field Technician, Skagafjordur Viking Site, Iceland 2008-2009
Selected for team from University of Massachusetts, Boston
Participated in Phase III excavation
Acquired experience in Single Context excavation, GPR, and Total Station
Worked as Field Supervisor in 2009
- Student Liaison, Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY 2006-2009
Piloted cultural exchange program with Plan International; represented Hofstra on international visit
Initiated contact with students at the University of Lomé in Togo, Africa
Established parallel mentorship program with Middle School children in both countries
- Intern, Center for Civic Engagement, Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY 2007-2009
Conducted research and promoted diversity on campus
Assisted in planning and running political events while promoting student civic involvement
Engaged in major fundraising endeavors
- Peer Teacher, Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY 2007-2008
Assisted professors in Intro to Archaeology, Human Evolution, and Archaeology Field School
Prepared and presented lectures to students, served as liaison between students and professor
Developed research assignments and proctored review and study sessions
- Docent, King Manor Museum, Jamaica, NY 2007-2008
Acted as Archaeology Expert on site
Gave tours to elementary school children and directed archaeology learning activities
Led question and answer sessions
- Field Technician, Prosper King House, Hampton Bays, NY 2006
Assisted Hofstra University professors in CRM contract project

OTHER ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Presidential Scholarship
- Interviewed by NBC's Today Show regarding experience at Joseph Lloyd Manor
- Fluent in French, conversational Spanish and American Sign Language, basic knowledge of Arabic
- Founder and President of Hofstra Outdoors Club
- President and Treasurer of Hofstra Anthropology Club
- Volunteer Mentor with Sierra Club's Inner City Outings program
- Volunteer Mentor with NH Venture Crew