

Brooke Brilliant

EDUCATION INFORMATION:

BS Anthropology, College of Charleston, 2005

SUBFIELD

Historical Archaeology

AREAS OF INTEREST:

My research interests include: the African Diaspora, interactions between Native Americans and African Americans during the colonial and antebellum periods, the production and use of colonoware, and the processes in which new cultures and identities are created as a result of cultures coming into contact.

ADVISOR:

Kenneth Kelly

CONFERENCES ATTENDED:

2010, Society for Historical Archaeology

2007, Southeastern Archaeological Conference

PUBLICATIONS:

2009 The Charleston Eagle Bottle: A Link to Pharmaceutical Practices and Jewish Life in the Nineteenth Century. South Carolina Antiquities 41:63-70.

EMAIL:

brillian@mailbox.sc.edu