

Department of Government & International Studies

NEWS BULLETIN

PUBLICATIONS

Bruce Russett, Harvey Starr and David Kinsella, World Politics: The Menu for Choice, 7th edition (Belmont, CA: Wadsworth, 2003).

Laura R. Woliver, "Ethical Dilemmas in Personal Interviewing," Political Science and Politics, Vol. 35, No. 4 (December 2002): 677-678.

Don Songer and his co-authors Martha Humphries Ginn and Tammy Sarver (both USC Ph.Ds in Political Science) have recently received word that their article entitled, "Do Judges Follow the Law When There is No Fear of Reversal?" has been accepted for publication in the Justice System Journal.

David Whiteman's article "Teaching Green: Experimenting with Green Values in the Classroom" has been published in the January 2003 issue of PS.

Philip H. Jos and Mark E. Tompkins, "The Accountability Paradox in An Age of Reinvention: The Perennial Problem of Preserving Character and Judgement", Administration and Society, (forthcoming).

The second edition of State and Local Government: The Essentials, by Ann Bowman and Rick Kearney, has been published by Houghton Mifflin.

George Krause's book review of Kenneth R. Mayer's With the Stroke of a Pen: Executive Orders and Presidential Power (2001 - Princeton University Press) appears in the December 2002 issue of American Political Science Review.

George Krause's book review of David W. Brady, John F. Cogan, and Morris P. Fiorina's, eds. volume Continuity and Change in House Elections (2000 - Stanford University Press) appears in the current issue of Public Choice.

PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

Shahrough Akhavi presented his paper, "Scripturalist and Modernist Understandings of Shari'a in Egypt and Iran Concerning Social Contract," at the two-day symposium, "Shari'a in the Contemporary Context: Inquiries into the Normative Discourse of Islam," Yale University, New Haven, CT, 8-9 February 2003.

MATTERS OF INTEREST

Natalie Hevener Kaufman attended a meeting of the Key Institutions of the global research network, Childwatch International in Bangkok Thailand December 9-11, 2002. She presented a paper and report on International Organizations' Use of Child Research. She chaired a plenary meeting on the future plans of the organization and was selected to co-chair the task force on Civic Life Participation for a global conference in Oslo Norway in 2005.

Laura R. Woliver held a press conference at the State Capital with the S.C. Commission on Women for the release of the "Status of Women in South Carolina Report." She was subsequently interviewed by the following media about the report: The Charlotte Observer, The Carolina News, The State, Associated Press, WVOC Radio, and the South Carolina News Network. The report is on the Women's Studies Web page for those interested.

Laura R. Woliver was featured on "Carolina Minute," talking about her new book.

The Women's Studies Program and the Women's Studies Partnership Council sponsored an S.C. ETV taping with Coach Curtis Frye, several of his national track stars, and area middle and high school girl athletes in a discussion on "Character and Discipline through Female Athletics." The show will be aired statewide on PBS on February 18th from 1:00-2:00 p.m. and on all state public school television networks.

NOTICE: As in the past, the departmental newsletter is not being distributed to all graduate students. Instead copies are posted for their review on the graduate bulletin board. Any graduate student wanting an individual copy can pick one up in the main office, room 349.

Also available on the web page at www.cla.sc.edu/GINT.