

Political Science
Department
NEWS BULLETIN

Volume XVI, No. 2
Vol. 1

February 25, 2005
January 30, 2004

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congratulations to Jeremy Wolfe an International Studies major in the Honors College, and a Truman Scholar, for receiving an Honorable Mention in the USA Today's All-USA Academic Team.

PUBLICATIONS

Harvey Starr and G. Dale Thomas (USC Ph.D.), "The Nature of Borders and International Conflict: Revising Hypotheses on Territory," International Studies Quarterly, Vol. 49, No.1 (2005), pp. 123-139.

Jerrell Cogburn (PS Ph.D., 1999) and Steve Hays published an article in a recent symposium (edited by Charlie Tyer). "Innovations in Local Government Human Resource Systems: Observations from Several Best Practice Locations." Public Administration Quarterly 27 (Winter, 2004): 433-455.

Betty Glad has a new entry in the Oxford Companion to Politics of the World entitled "Jimmy Carter."

Chuck Kegley has signed a contract with Prentice Hall to co-author a book with Christine Day, entitled The Globalization of American Politics.

PAPERS and PRESENTATIONS

Betty Glad presented "A History of Inaugurations" to the National Association of Retired and Active Federal Employees at Seawells Restaurant on January 14, 2005.

Gordon Smith presented a 3-day workshop, "Putin's Agenda for Russia: Implications for the U.S., Europe, China, and the World," at the Federal Executive Institute, Charlottesville, VA January 24-26.

David Whiteman presented a paper on "Unleashing the Power of Documentary Film" at the USC Comparative Literature Conference on "Thinking on the boundaries: The Availability of Philosophy in Film and Literature," February 12.

MATTERS OF INTEREST

Gordon Smith participated in a 12-day workshop, "Indian Politics and the Economy," at the Management Development Institute of New Delhi, January 1-12. The workshop was funded by a grant from CIBER.

Gordon Smith represented USC and the Columbia Council of International Visitors at the 2005 National Meeting of the National Council for International Visitors, sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs, February 10-12, Washington, DC.

Laura R. Woliver spoke on a panel about "Religious Perspectives on Abortion," January 20, at the Columbia Unitarian Universalist Church.

Laura R. Woliver was part of a panel celebrating the anniversary of Roe v. Wade and it's future at the College of Charleston, January 22.

Laura R. Woliver, as president of the Women's Caucus for Political Science, attended the annual Committee on the Status of Women in the Profession meetings at the American Political Science Association in Washington, DC on February 4.

NOTICE: Also available on the web page at www.cla.sc.edu/POLI.