

Department of Government & International Studies NEWS BULLETIN

PUBLICATIONS

Harvey Starr and G. Dale Thomas (GINT Ph.D.) have received word that their manuscript, "The 'Nature' of Contiguous Borders: Ease of Interaction, Salience, and the Analysis of Crisis," has been accepted for publication in International Interactions.

Charles W. Kegley published From War and Peace: Fateful Decisions in International Politics. Boston: Bedford/St. Martin's.

Charles W. Kegley published "Fearing Fear Itself: Reflections on 9-11" in September 11 and After: Prentice Hall Authors Speak Out (January 2002), pp, 51-59.

MATTERS OF INTEREST

Charles W. Kegley was moderator and chaired a panel entitled "The Contribution and Legacy of Francis Lieber," at the College of Liberal Arts, The University of South Carolina, November 9, 2001.

Shahrough Akhavi has accepted an invitation by Routledge Publishers to be Editor of the Middle East Series in Politics, History and Law.

Steve Hays attended a meeting sponsored by the Casey Foundation in Scottsdale, AZ on January 10th and 11th. In addition to facilitating a discussion of partnerships between Human Service and Human Resource Management personnel, he made a pitch to the Center for the Study of Social Policy (a Casey funded organization) for research grants in two areas: creation of a Human Services database, and dissemination of HR Best Practices to the HS community.

