

Political Science Department
NEWS BULLETIN
Volume XVI, No. 9                      November 29, 2004

PUBLICATIONS

Todd Shaw and his co-authors Lester Spence and Robert Brown have had their paper entitled, "True to Our Native Land: Distinguishing Attitudinal Support for Pan-Africanism from Black Nationalism" accepted for publication in the DuBois Review: Social Science Research on Race. It will appear in the Spring 2005 issue.

PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

Harvey Starr, presented a paper entitled "Cumulation from Proper Specification: Theory, Logic, Research Design, and 'Nice Laws'" at the Thirty-Eighth North American Meeting of the Peace Science Society (International), November 12-14, 2004, Houston, TX.

Neal Woods, presented a paper entitled "Competitive Federalism and the Cost of Pollution Abatement" at the annual meeting of the association for Public Policy Analysis and Management, Atlanta, GA October 28-30.

Todd Shaw gave a presentation entitled "Warring Ideals: Race, Dialogue, and Black Attitudes Towards Patriotism Post 9/11" for the November 2nd Political Science Research Workshop.

Zaryab Iqbal presented a paper, "Time, Space, and the Politics of Refugee Flows in Africa" (co-authored with Christopher Zorn), at the Peace Science Society Meeting in Houston, TX, November 12-14.

Gordon Smith presented a guest lecture entitled "Russia, Europe and the Evolving World Order" on October 20th for the College Endowment Association, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Gordon Smith presented the keynote address entitled, "Bringing Law Back In: A Neoinstitutional Approach to State-Building," for a conference "The Constitution and the War on Terrorism," November 11-13, Hamilton College, Clinton, NY.

Jessica Sowa presented a paper entitled "Performance Management in Nonprofit Human Service Organizations: Exploring the Match between Management and Staff Perceptions" at the Annual Conference of the Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action (ARNOVA) in Los Angeles, CA, November 19th.

Mona Lyne presented two papers "Not Rent-Seeking but Clientelism" and "Endogenous Institutions: Electoral Law and Internal Party Dynamics in Brazil" at the annual meeting of the American Political Science Association, Chicago, IL, September 1-5.

Mona Lyne presented a paper entitled "How the Washington Consensus Misdiagnosed the Problems of Reform in Developing Countries" at the Latin American Studies Association Meeting, Las Vegas, October 7-9.

Mona Lyne gave two invited papers at The College of William and Mary. On November 11, she presented "How the Washington Consensus Misdiagnosed the Problems of Reform in Developing Countries” and on November 12 she presented “The Voter’s Dilemma and Democratic Accountability: Why Welfare-Enhancing Politics Fail in Developing Countries.”

MATTERS OF INTEREST

Laura Woliver gave 14 separate election-related interviews which included The Los Angeles Times, Vanity Fair, and the Associated Press.

Laura Woliver participated in 2 election forums: one for Women’s Studies and one for African American Studies.

An article authored by Steve Hays [“Trends and Best Practices in State and Local Human Resource Management,” Review of Public Personnel Administration 24:3 (2004)] is one of seven papers that has been nominated for the Joseph Wholey Award. The Wholey Award is sponsored by the American Society for Public Administration to recognize “outstanding scholarship on performance improvement in public and nonprofit organizations.”

Betty Glad lectured the CIA on assessing authoritarian leaders Monday, November 15, 2004 in Washington, DC.

Todd Shaw gave an interview on 101.3 FM show “On Point: With Cynthia Hardy” on Sunday, November 7th. The topic was the aftermath of the 2004 presidential elections and the impact upon the African American community.

NOTICE: Also available on the web page at www.cla.sc.edu/POLI.

