

Political Science
Department
NEWS BULLETIN
Volume XVI, No. 8                      October 29, 2004

PUBLICATIONS

Ann Bowman's article, "Horizontal Federalism: Exploring Interstate Interactions," appears in the October 2004 issue of the Journal of Public Administration Research and Theory.

Betty Glad's book chapter "Bill Clinton: The Character Issue Revisited" appears in The Clinton Riddle: Perspectives on the Forty-Second President, University of Arkansas Press, edited by: Todd G. Shields, Jeannie M. Whyne and Donald R. Kelley.

Steve Hays and Robert Lavigna's article, "Recruitment and Selection of Public Workers: An International Compendium of Modern Trends and Practices," appears in the most recent issue of Public Personnel Management, Vol. 33, (Fall, 2004), pp. 237-253.

PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

Harvey Starr, presented a paper entitled "The Democratic Peace and Integration," at the annual meeting of the International Studies Association, South Annual Meeting, October 22-23, 2004, Columbia.

Zaryab Iqbal presented a paper entitled "Globalization, Democracy, and Armed Conflict, 1978-2002", with Christopher Zorn at the International Studies Association-South Annual Meeting, October 22-23, 2004, Columbia.

MATTERS OF INTEREST

Harvey Starr served as Chair of the Panel, "Democracy, Conflict and Cooperation: Extending the Implications of Theory and Findings," at the International Studies Association, South Annual Meeting, October 22-23, 2004, Columbia.

Dan Sabia served as a member of the Program Committee for the second annual Association for Political Theory conference, held October 28-31 at The Colorado College in Colorado Springs. Dan is a founding member of the Association, which this year attracted well over 120 political theorists and philosophers from around the country and points beyond. He also served as Chair of a Panel on "Political Difference in American—Past and Present."

George Krause has been named to the editorial board of the Journal of Politics for a two year renewable term that begins on January 1, 2005.

Steve Hays was the Human Resource Management Track Chair at the recent Southeastern Conference on Public Administration (SECOPA) and chaired a panel on "Human Service Reforms." SECOPA was held on October 2-5 in Charlotte, NC.

Katherine Barbieri chaired a roundtable entitled "Globalization and Conflict" at the International Studies Association, South Annual Meeting, October 22-23, 2004, Columbia.

Katherine Barbieri gave a talk to the PSIS on “Globalization and Conflict” on October 26th.

Mark Tompkins attended a Focus Group Meeting of the Active Living Research program, sponsored by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation at the Association for Public Policy and Management meetings on October 29th in Atlanta.

Mark Tompkins will serve as co-investigator on The Arnold School of Public Health’s Prevention Center’s participation in the Physical Activity Policy Research Network funded by the Centers for Disease Control.

Mark Tompkins will serve as co-investigator on a project awarded to the Rural Health Research Center of the Arnold School of Public Health on “Poverty, Parental Stress, and Violent Disagreements in the Home among Rural Families” (Charity Moore, Principal Investigator).

GRADUATE NEWS

Lucas McMillan (1st year Political Science Graduate Student) won the Best Graduate Student Paper award at the ISA - South Annual Meeting for his paper entitled “Constructing Transatlantic Communities in an Age of Multi-Level Governance: US States in US-EU Relations.”

NOTICE: Also available on the web page at www.cla.sc.edu/POLI.

