

Political Science
Department
NEWS BULLETIN
Volume XVI, No. 7 September 24, 2004

PUBLICATIONS

George Krause and Ann Bowman's manuscript entitled "Adverse Selection, Political Parties, and Policy Delegation in the American Federal System." has been accepted for publication in the Journal of Law, Economics, and Organization. It is tentatively scheduled to appear in the Fall 2005 issue.

George Krause and James Douglas' manuscript entitled "Institutional Design versus Reputational Explanations of Agency Performance: Evidence from U.S. Government Macroeconomic and Fiscal Projections." has been accepted for publication in Journal of Public Administration Research and Theory.

George Krause's manuscript entitled "The Secular Decline in Presidential Domestic Policy Making: An Organizational Perspective" has been accepted for publication in Presidential Studies Quarterly. It is scheduled to appear in the December 2004 issues.

Katherine Barbieri's manuscript with Jack Levy entitled "Trading with the Enemy During Wartime: A Theoretical and Empirical Study" has been accepted for publication in Security Studies.

Chuck Kegley published "Global Terrorism and Military Preemption: Policy Problems and Normative Perils," International Politics, Vol. 41, No.1, pp. 37-49.

John Hsieh's article, "National Identity and Taiwan's Mainland China Policy," appears in the Journal of Contemporary China, Vol. 13,

No.40 (August 2004), pp. 479-90.

Jim Douglas and Kim Hoffman's article "Impoundment at the State Level: Executive Power and Budget Impact." was recently published in the American Review of Public Administration, Vol. 34, No.3.

PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

George Krause's co-authored paper (with J. Kevin Corder, Western Michigan University) "The Effects of Reputation Costs on Agency Policy Decisions: Theory and Evidence" was presented on the Budgetary Politics panel (Formal Political Theory section) at the 2004 meeting of the American Political Science Association.

Katherine Barbieri presented a paper (with Rafael Reuveny) "Economic Globalization and Civil War" at the Annual Meeting of the American Political Science Association in Chicago, IL.

Don Songer, Susan Johnson (Political Science Ph.D. student), Cindy Ostberg (University of the Pacific) and Matt Wetstein (Delta College) presented a paper at the recent meeting of the American Political Science Association entitled, "The Nature and Extent of Attitudinal Decision Making in the Supreme Court of Canada."

John Hsieh presented a paper entitled "Institutional Design for a Midly Divided Society: The Case of Taiwan" at the Conference on Taiwan Issues held by the USC Center for Asian Studies in Columbia, SC, on September 10-12, 2004.

Jim Douglas gave a talk on judicial budgeting in the states at the American Bar Association’s national conference in Atlanta on August 6th. “Institutional

MATTERS OF INTEREST

Harvey Starr served as Chair of the Panel, “Bad Neighborhoods: Civil Wars in Regional Perspective,” at the annual meeting of the American Political Science Association, September 2-5, 2004, Chicago.

At the American Political Science Convention September 2-5, 2004 in Chicago. Laura R. Woliver participated in a roundtable on “The Re-Emerging Politics of Abortion Rights: Thoughts From Academia and the Field.”

At the APSA Convention Laura R. Woliver was the discussant for a panel entitled, “Women’s Movements in Comparative Perspectives.”

For the APSA Convention Laura R. Woliver organized the preconvention workshop on publishing, all the panels and events for the Women’s Caucus in Political Science.

Laura R. Woliver is now the President of the Women’s Caucus in Political Science.

GRADUATE NEWS

Tajuana Massie (who received her Ph.D. from USC last month presented a paper at the recent meeting of the American Political Science Association entitled, “The Hierarchy of Justice: Exploring the Influence of External Constraints on US Supreme Court-Circuit Court Interaction.”

NOTICE: Also available on the web page at www.cla.sc.edu/POLI.

