

EUROPEAN STUDIES (EURO)

Required Courses for Undergraduates

EURO 300: Introductory Seminar on Contemporary Europe (3 hours)
EURO 490: Senior Seminar (3 hours)
EURO 499: Senior Thesis (3 hours)

You are in charge of your major: together with the Program Director, you create a program of study that examines a central theme, for example, terrorism; borders, migration, and refugees; trends in popular culture; European Union integration and expansion; regional history; or issues specific to a country or region.

The remaining 18 credit hours must combine course work from two or more academic departments. Please consult the EURO program for a list of approved courses with at least 2 different departments represented.

The list of courses is as follows:
