

PHILOSOPHY

The Philosophy Major: requires PHIL 102, 110, and 24 credit hours in courses numbered 201 and above, which must include:

- History of Philosophy:

PHIL 201, 202 and one course from
PHIL 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 540, 571, 573

- Fields of Philosophy:

one course from
PHIL 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 521, 523, 528, 532, 534, 536, 550

- Seminar in Philosophy:

PHIL 490

The Department recommends that PHIL 102, 110, 201, and 202 be taken within the first two years of study. Since these courses can be used to satisfy some core requirements as well, they provide a no-risk way to explore a major in philosophy. The seminar in philosophy (PHIL 490) serves as a required capstone course for majors in their last year of study. The foreign languages recommended for students majoring in philosophy are French, German, Greek, and Latin.