

SOCIOLOGY

The pre-major and the major requirements listed below must be completed with a grade of C or better.

I. Pre-major Requirements

SOCY 101 Introductory Sociology
(prerequisite for all other sociology courses.)

SOCY 220 Elementary Statistics for Sociologists
(prerequisite for SOCY 300, 310, and 320. It can be met by satisfactorily completing PSYC 227, MGSC 291, STAT 201 or an equivalent course in quantitative methods. The department encourages sociology majors to take SOCY 220.)

II. Major Requirements

Any TWO of the following three courses are required:

SOCY 300 - Social Structures (also the prerequisite for SOCY 500 to 509)

SOCY 310 - Social Demography (also the prerequisite for SOCY 510 to 519)

SOCY 320 - Individual and Society (also the prerequisite for SOCY 520 to 529 & 557)

FIVE sociology courses at the 300-level or above in addition to the above requirement.

The department offers a variety of courses that explore particular areas of social life, such as the family, minority groups, aging, children and youth, collective behavior, sex roles, social problems, inequality, death and dying, education, and more.

TWO 500-level courses.

These are intended to be small, junior-senior level seminars.